

ETF CenterSM

Powerful Tools and Market Data for Analyzing U.S. Exchange-Traded Funds

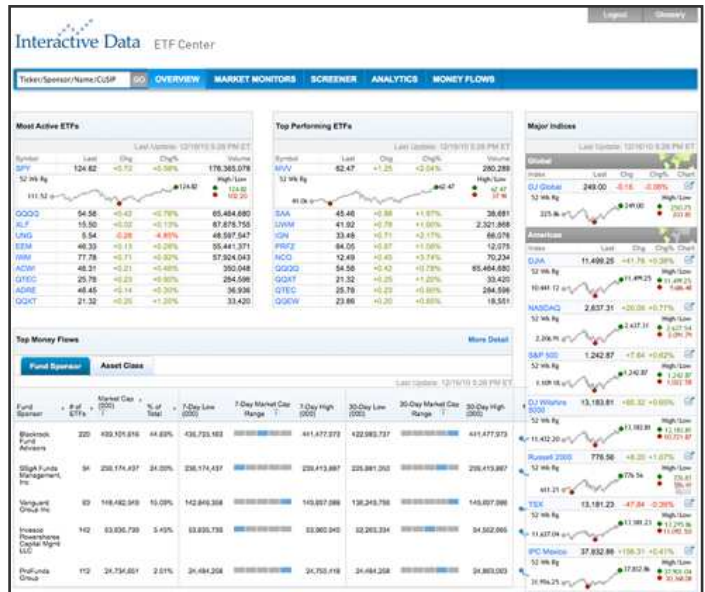

Interactive Data offers a robust ETF CenterSM designed to provide you and your clients with a comprehensive suite of real-time and end-of-day (EOD) market data and analytical tools. We cover all exchange-traded products listed for trading in the U.S.

The ETF Center is developed and hosted by Interactive Data and can be customized and integrated into your existing online offerings or used as a stand-alone destination site with your branding.

Our ETF Center provides financial professionals with tools designed for easier and more efficient searching and monitoring of U.S. listed ETFs.

Customizable Modules

- Market Monitor – Create personal ETF watchlists that are designed to track latest price, volume, bid/ask spreads, indicative optimized portfolio value (IOPV), premium/discount, and other trading and performance data. An alert feature can also notify users of specific market activity.
- Constituent Reports – Drill down to the constituent level of an ETF and see last price, spread, sector allocation, geographic exposure, credit ratings and performance contribution data, as available. (Access to the reports is subject to additional third party fees and/or licenses.)
- Interactive Screener – Easily search, filter and monitor ETFs by selecting key criteria including sector, performance, fund sponsor, and fees. You can also save screens and update your personal watchlist right from the Screener.

- Money Flow – This feature is designed to allow you to analyze and create reports for market capitalization changes by Fund Sponsor, Asset Class and individual ETF.
- ETF Profile – View a comprehensive screen of fund facts including trading, distribution and performance data for the ETF, plus the sector and country weights with robust charting.
