

eSignal Pro

The premier global market data and analytics platform for the broker-dealer, institutional trading and sell-side community

As a global desktop solution, eSignal Pro® offers in-depth, streaming, real-time and delayed data and news for stocks, futures, options, F/X, Treasuries (Cantor Market Data) and indices from more than 125 exchanges worldwide. Plus, essential analytics and market information allow you to react more quickly and make better decisions.

Whether you're an independent advisor or a broker/dealer seeking an enterprise-wide desktop solution, eSignal Pro will help you work more efficiently. Use the pre-defined screens or easily create your own to view the content you use most often. Add innovative, time-saving features, such as color-coded window linking, and you have a solution designed for the way you work.
